

Rebate Charge Is Being Probed

Prominent Witnesses Asked For in Hearing of Lamar's Charges.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—Counsel for David Lamar, whose charges that the United States Steel corporation has received illegal rebates from railroads during the last six years are being investigated by the interstate commerce commission, today asked for subpoenas for George W. Perkins, William E. Corey, former president of the corporation; Samuel Oliver, G. M. Frier of Columbus; Walter Seranton and William B. Dixon.

Charles A. Severance, attorney for the steel corporation, was delayed by the railroad blockade and cross examination of Lamar did not begin until late in the day.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

She is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. It is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It has a wonderful influence, always all pain, is a grateful encouragement to the expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women.

This splendid remedy can be had of any drug store at $1.00 a bottle. Write to Bradford Regulator Co., 232 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

Valuable Item for Men

Health and strength hitherto unknown will be felt surging in rich red blood through the arteries and veins and life's greatest ambitions may be realized as never before if the following special treatment is followed by those men, and women, too, who are stricken with that most dreaded of all ailments, nervous exhaustion, accompanied with such symptoms as extreme nervousness, insomnia, dizziness, tremulousness, melancholia, headaches, constipation and dyspepsia, kidney trouble, dreadful dreams of direful disasters, timidity in venturing and a general inability to act naturally at all times as other people do. Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment, and the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want restoration, health and all the happiness accompanying it, the following home treatment is given.

Contains no opiates, no habit-forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your condition. The treatment is simple, thorough and correct. Leading druggists supply the medicine. It is a compound of pure vegetable extracts and essences in one-ounce bottles, ready to mix. Get three ounces, syrup sarsaparilla, compound mix with one ounce compound fluid balsam, and stand two hours. Add one ounce compound essence cardifolia, and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom). Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime.

The ingredients are used for various prescriptions.—Advertisement.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity.

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine-tenths of the way to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemned the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bisulphated magnesia, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be to treat a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bisulphated magnesia from their druggist and take a teaspoonful in a quart of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in five minutes if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.—Advertisement.

DEATHS AND BURIALS.

REV. E. E. BAKER.

Rev. E. E. Baker, a retired Presbyterian minister, died at a local hospital at 615 Monday night.

Rev. E. E. Baker was born in Randolph county, Missouri, on February 10, 1857. He was a prominent minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, spending the greater part of his active ministry in Missouri. He retired some years ago and had been residing in El Paso at 207 Mundy avenue. His widow, Mrs. Martha Frances Richmond Baker, survives him. Rev. and Mrs. Baker had just recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They had been spending a few months in Corpus Christi and had returned Friday. Rev. Mr. Baker was taken ill very suddenly, and an operation was decided as necessary, but it failed to prolong his life. Six children survive him: E. B. Baker, of El Paso, who is connected with the First National bank; F. M. Baker and J. A. Baker, of Amarillo, Tex.; Roy Baker, of Tampico, Mex.; Mrs. E. J. Keatts, of Richards, Mo.; and Mrs. L. E. Croon, of Wagner, Oklahoma. The funeral service was held this afternoon from the residence of Rev. L. Overstreet of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. W. C. Baker, of the Altura Park Presbyterian church, conducted the service. The body will be shipped to Amarillo, Tex., tonight for burial there.

The body of J. A. Wilkins, aged about 55 years, who died Sunday afternoon at the union station, is being held at the local undertaker's establishment pending the arrival of relatives from Odel, Nebraska. The deceased came here from Phoenix, Ariz.

ear that listens. The orchestra was augmented for last night's performance with six extra pieces, including a harp, making eleven people in the orchestra and three of them soloists.

The costumes and the settings are beautiful. The gowns are striking exhibitions of Paris models, beautifully new and worn with much grace by a charming lot of girls. The stage setting for the third act—a garden of a Parisian hotel—occupies the full stage and in harmony of color and artistic arrangement, is a picture worthy of the production.

"Adele" is the story of a girl who is in love with the son of her father's business rival, who can't wed him because of parental objection on both sides, and who appeals to a baron to marry and then divorce her so that she can exercise her claims. The baron is bankrupt and about to end it all in suicide, and readily agrees to the wedding for the proffered dowry of 200,000 francs which will enable him to pay off some of his debts and marry a widow whom he loves himself. He suddenly inherits his uncle's fortune, but goes on with the wedding. He learns to love her and she to love him. Instead of this wedding the lives of the other two lovers, they seek consolation in the society of each other and end the cycle of events by getting married themselves.

John Park as the baron, is a splendid singer, a capable actor, and very good looking. Carolyn Thompson as Adele is remarkably charming and has a voice of unusual sweetness and excellence for an 18 year old girl. Alfred Kappeler as Robert Fieber, Miss Overstreet's lover, sang and acted well. Nanette Mack as the widow, was very bewitching and sang sweetly. She was formerly prima donna in the Hippodrome in New York and has a voice as attractive as her personality.

"Before I will permit her to marry your son, I will kill my daughter with my own hands," declared Adele's father. "You mean with your own hands," retorts the rival father, Robert's father is an excitable epileptic who gets red in the face and can only make a noise in his throat when he grows very angry at his rival, and his capers and antics when in this mood afford a splendid bit of stage realism. The two men are extremely good in their respective roles—George O'Donnell as Adele's father and Jules Equilly as the father of Robert.

Ralph Nairn as the valet, has a good role and acts it well.

Being an operetta much of the plot is unraveled in song, and there is scarcely any of it that is not extremely tuneful and pretty. It is all well sung.

The people who failed to fill the vacant seats in the back of the house last night, missed something worth while.

I'll bet my crown jewels that the bridegroom will throw up his job and resume his old occupation of holding down the street corners within three weeks. Myra will have to take in plain and fancy sewing to provide saucers, and when she gets tired of that she'll charter a lawyer and get a divorce. It's the only sane and sensible thing she can do under such conditions."
